

Table of comparing TV Parent Guidelines and Film certificate

Film certificate	My certificate
UA, Passed, TV-PG, PG-13, 16, PG	middle audience
TV-14, U, G, GP, Approved	universal audience
R, Unrated, TV-MA, A, rating_NC-17, X	adult audience

Links:

Motion Picture Association film rating system:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Motion\_Picture\_Association\_film\_rating\_system

Central Board of Film Certification:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Central\_Board\_of\_Film\_Certification

The TV Parental Guidelines system:

https://rating-system.fandom.com/wiki/TV\_Parental\_Guidelines

Film certification guidance:

<https://mwldan.co.uk/about-us/film-certificate-guidance>

Point:

In order to make our work easier we have to hot-encode our feature "certificate". There are 3 options that our model will take into consideration from this feature. Each feature will be separated for columns. Model will understand is this movie could be watch by anyone or circle of potential watchers lesser.